Nevada State Board of NURSING

Fiscal Year July 1, 2000 - June 30, 2001

Mission

*The mission of the Nevada State
Board of Nursing is to protect the public's health, safety and welfare
through the effective regulation of nursing.*

What is the Nevada State Board of Nursing?

It is a seven-member board appointed by the governor consisting of four registered nurses, one practical nurse, one certified nursing assistant and one consumer member. The Board is advised by and appoints members to standing advisory committees. The Board appoints an executive director (a registered nurse), who is responsible for a staff of 18, which regulates a nursing population of more than 23,000.

What does the Nevada State Board of Nursing do?

The state legislature established the Board 78 years ago to regulate the practice of nursing. The scope of the Board's original responsibilities has grown dramatically since 1923, when it licensed 104 registered nurses. In 2001, it was responsible for licensing, certifying and disciplining more than 23,000 individuals, including registered nurses, licensed practical nurses, advanced practice nurses, certified nursing assistants, and certified registered nurse anesthetists. The Board's current functions include:

- Issue certificates to nursing assistants
- License registered and practical nurses
- Certify advanced practitioners of nursing, certified registered nurse anesthetists, and emergency medical service/registered nurses
- Approve education/training programs for on-going competency

Discipline and Investigations

- Investigate complaints against nurses and nursing assistants
- Conduct disciplinary proceedings
- Monitor nurses and nursing assistants who are on probation
- Administer nondisciplinary alternative program for nurses recovering from chemical dependency

History and Highlights

A Brief History

In 2001, the Nevada State Board of Nursing (NSBN) completed 78 years of service to the residents of Nevada. Established by the state legislature in 1923, it was modeled on legislation enacted by other countries and a few other states. The intent was to separate untrained "nurses" from those who had undergone formal training.

Nevada's first school of nursing was established by St. Mary's Hospital in 1909. An alumni association of the school's graduates led the formation of the Nevada State Nurses Association in 1917. Its main objective was to "secure passage of a law providing state registration of nurses."

Attempts to achieve this goal were made during the legislative sessions of 1915, 1919 and 1921, but all failed. In 1923, a bill was introduced by State Assemblywoman Marguerite Gosse of Reno. In spite of opposition, the bill was passed by both houses and signed into law by Governor James Scrugham on March 20, 1923.

Since its inception, the Nevada State Board of Nursing has grown from a three-member to a seven-member entity. Its functions and responsibilities have increased dramatically, as have the number of nursing care providers it oversees.

Eighty-seven individuals have served on the Board, bringing hundreds of years of nursing experience with them. They have represented every nursing specialty and a wide range of health care settings. In 1973, a consumer member was added to represent the viewpoint of the general public, and in 1995, a certified nursing assistant member was added to represent the CNA community.

Highlights of FY00/01

Governor appoints new Board members

Nevada Governor Kenny Guinn appointed MaryAnn Lambert and Helen Vos to serve four-year terms as RN members of the Board. They replaced Kathleen Reynolds and Tana Wisniewski, whose terms expired October 1, 2000. The governor also reappointed Cookie Bible to serve a second four-year term as an RN member.

Executive director named to national post

In June, Kathy Apple was named executive director for the National Council of State Boards of Nursing. Apple served as the Nevada State Board of Nursing's executive director for five years. She joined the Board in 1992 as associate executive director for nursing practice.

The Board reaches out

The mission of the Board is to protect the public's health safety and welfare through effective nursing regulation. But most of the members of the public don't know there's a place they can turn to if they have a concern about a nurse or nursing assistant. In FY00/01, the Board created and distributed a brochure aimed directly at

109	Southern Nevada 63
	Northern Nevada 39
	Rural Nevada 7
Presentations

consumers of nursing care, describing what the Board does and how the public can access its services. Recognizing that the nursing community also needs to be aware of the Board's role, staff members criss-crossed the state to make 109 presentations to more than 2,200 people on topics ranging from the discipline process to the role of the board. They spoke in locations ranging from schools to hospitals to offices to correctional centers.

Nevada receives national recognition

The Nevada State Board of Nursing has a strong voice on the national level, thanks to the volunteer efforts of its Board members and staff. The National Council of State Boards of Nursing recognized Board members Patricia Shutt for serving on the NCLEX item review panel and Cookie Bible for serving on the NCSBN's practice and education committee, and honored staff member Bobbye Hicks for her service on the test service technical subcommittee.

Board joins forces to help alleviate nursing shortage

As a founding member of the Nevada Nurse Task Force, the Board collaborated on several initiatives to help alleviate the state's nursing shortage. Raising awareness and gathering support were the first priorities of the task force, which includes representatives from hospitals, nursing groups, education, government, and elected officials. As a result, the Nevada Hospital Association sponsored Nursing Shortage Forums in Reno and Las Vegas. Several Board members and staff participated in the forums and Executive Director Kathy Apple served as a speaker for the Las Vegas forum.

New laws support nursing practice

The 2001 Nevada Legislature considered several issues affecting nursing practice. The Board supported and testified on behalf of successful legislation giving APNs the authority to prescribe controlled substances, allowing nurses to take orders from physician assistants, ensuring that school nursing services are provided under the direction and supervision of a chief nurse, and requesting Nevada nursing schools double their capacity.

Streamlined application process

The Board revised all of its applications—renewal, initial and examination—for RNs, LPNs, CNAs, and APNs. To streamline the application process, it eliminated the demographic questions and reduced the size of the renewal applications to one page, two sides. It also combined the RN and LPN initial and examination applications into one.

Advisory committees given sharper focus

At its annual retreat, the Board reviewed the roles of its advisory committees. As a result, it disbanded the Nursing Competency Advisory and redefined the charge of the Nursing Practice Advisory Committee to focus on scope of practice and competency issues. It also defined the charge of the Advanced Practice Advisory Committee as advising in matters related to the advanced practice of nursing.

On-line license verification

Before FY00/01, anyone wishing to verify if a nurse or nursing assistant had an active license or certificate had to call or write the Board. Now, license verification is just a click away on the Board's web site (www.nursingboard.state.nv.us).

Audit confirms Board is sound fiscal manager

An independent, annual audit showed the Board met all accounting standards including state accounting standards, and all statutory requirements.

Board Advisory Committees

ANNUAL REPORT 2000 - 2001

The Board is advised by and appoints members to standing advisory committees. These committees are composed of nursing professionals who are chosen based on expertise, geographic location and committee need.

Questions about nursing regulation and practice are brought to these committees for research, discussion and policy development. The Board considers the recommendations of its advisory committees during its regular meetings. Virtually every law, regulation and advisory opinion issued by the Board has been based on a recommendation by one of its advisory committees.

Committee openings are advertised in the Board's newsletter and on its website. Applications are reviewed and members are appointed at regularly scheduled Board meetings. One Board member serves as a liaison to each advisory committee; Board staff members serve as advisory committee chairs.

Alternative Program

The Alternative Program for Chemically Dependent Nurses is a program for nurses and nursing assistants whose practice may be impaired due to chemical dependency.

The goal of this Board-sponsored program is to protect the public by identifying impaired individuals, then providing intervention and requiring treatment. It helps heal the healers, giving them the opportunity to take personal responsibility for recovery while being closely monitored through a nondisciplinary agreement and probation. In FY00/01, 31 individuals participated in this voluntary program.
