

Nevada State Board of NURSING

This is an Alert Regarding Scam Calls to Nevada Nurses.

Please be advised that the Nevada State Board of Nursing has been made aware of a resurgence of Scam calls being made to Nevada nurses. It has been reported that a person has called numerous Nevada nurses by telephone and advised the nurses they are under investigation, their license may be in jeopardy and asks for personal information. The caller identifies himself as either a board staff investigator or DEA investigator. The telephone number on the caller ID may be a Board of Nursing telephone number. These calls are not from the Nevada State Board of Nursing. Do not provide any information to the caller. If you have any questions, concerns, or need to check the current status of your license, please refer to your Nevada Nurse Portal account or call the Nursing Board directly at the number on the website.

Thank you,
